Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Psalter: Or, Selections From the Book of Psalms With Other Poetical Scriptures, for Responsive Reading in Public Worship Nearly twenty year ago the church, of which the writer was and still is the Pastor, adopted the responsive reading of the Psalms, by the Minister and the Congregation, at each Service on the Lord s Day, as a prescribed and permanent part of its public worship. As it was the wish of all there concerned with the matter to have the ancient hymns read antiphonally, dividing the successive verses into their parallel and responding clauses, and as no book was then at hand in which they were suitably printed for this purpose, or were arranged in Lessons of a convenient length, a small volume was hastily prepared, which it was thought might for a time supply the need of the waiting congregation. It has served its purpose well, and has silently made its way, to the grateful surprise of the compiler, into more than four hundred churches, of different communions, in our own country, and into American chapels in Europe. The custom of such responsive reading has also secured earnest friends, and enlisted for itself their intelligent interest, wherever it has been tried; and while, at the outset, a not unreasonable fear was entertained, by those to whom the thought of it was new, that it might tend to protract unduly the services of worship, or possibly to introduce into such services an element of formalism, of questionable value, so far as is known the congregations which have adopted it would now be entirely unwilling to displace it. Their attachment to it grows, as the...
