TOOLPATH GENERATION FOR FINISHING PROCESSING

Shaker Verlag Dez 2011, 2011. Buch. Book Condition: Neu. 211x149x17 mm. Neuware - For over 60 years researchers have worked on Numerical Control (NC) machines and CAx Software to implement toolpath strategies for sculpture surface manufacturing. Despite the significant progress since the beginning, automatic finishing processing for lapping or polishing is in general not possible. The quality of finishing processing relies mainly on manual skill, therefore requiring very experienced employees. To correct these deficiencies, the VDI/VDE Inno-Net 5570 Project was...
