Excerpt: . . . 12 I must also point out that this doctor, this fugitive of justice, was Ambassador to the United Nations from the Dominican Republic from 1989 - 1991 and that, despite his crimes, he is a free man and a prominent diplomat. According to the Inspector General, the Administration knows the exact address where he is practicing medicine today in Santa Domingo. And according to the State Department, the United States Embassy in the Dominican Republic, and the Department of Justices Office of International Affairs, no formal extradition request was ever made to return this fugitive to justice in the United States. The Administrations lack of commitment in this case is particularly striking, given that Article II of a bilateral treaty between the United States and the Dominican Republic calls for extradition in cases...
