Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Esperanto for the English: Grammar Exercises, Correspondence, Conversations, Vocabulary The study of Esperanto has become so general, owing to the remarkable success of the various International Congresses at Boulogne, Geneva, Cambridge, and Dresden, that another elementary Manual, designed to meet the peculiar requirements of the English-Speaking Peoples, may be excused. While there is nothing new to say, the old facts can, perhaps, be put in a form which may be helpful to beginners who know no other language but their own. For instance, in the earlier exercises only those Esperanto roots are employed which are either exactly the same as the English, or are so similar in appearance or sound as to be at once recognised and remembered. The student can thus concentrate his attention on the small grammatical variations between Esperanto and his mother tongue without being at the same time distracted by a strange vocabulary. Wherever possible, and wherever the connection is not obvious, an English word is given in brackets illustrating the Esperanto root as it may appear in another word than the one under consideration. For instance, dom-o, a house, may, at first view, appear quite strange, until it is pointed out that we have the same root in dom-icile; similarly with libr-o, a book, and libr-ary, etc. In this research considerable assistance has been derived from the Etymological Dictionary of the Esperanto Language, by Louis Bastien. The author would also like to express his indebtedness to A Grammar And Commentary on the International Language Esperanto, by Major-General Cox, who has very kindly permitted the use of the excellent table of English prepositions; to The Student's Complete Text Book of...
