Yes, but my conscience accuses me it s sinful entrapping those innocent birds. Harry. Well, you missed your calling, you ought to be brought up to the church. Console yourself, my drooping willow. Did we not meet Mrs D. at Miss Snizles millinery establishment, what took her there, and Miss C. and Miss H. at the ice cream saloon on the avenue, what took them there? To be sociable, of course, and if they go there, it s not our fault. Why, I was at Miss Snizle s establishment the other day and an old gray-headed man walks in with band box to get his wife s bonnet fixed. He left the band box on the counter and went up stairs to look at a new shape, and would you believe it, the band box was empty, the old sinner was fishing. Jim. Did you ever - ? Harry. Yes I did, but the most important question is, how are we to keep up the financial department. Jim. That s more than I know. I have taken all I could lay hands on, the last was my mother s bracelets, and they are gone up the spout. Harry. That s my fix exactly, the governor s watch and chain are gone in the same direction. Well, we have enough for a short time anyhow, and trust to luck for the future. Jim. That s a melancholy state of affairs, but I suppose we will have to keep under it. Harry. I would advise you to look for a situation as undertaker. Come, let us promenade. Wait, let me get my eyeglass....
